Seventh International Conference
"Polar Readings – 2019"
State and Public
Organisations in the Management of the Arctic:
Past, Present, Future

29–30 April 2019

Program

“Polar Readings – 2019” will focus on the history of and prospects for cooperation between state and public organisations in the management of the Arctic. This theme is extremely relevant in connection with the implementation of large-scale projects and the need to develop effective mechanisms for managing Arctic activities. The 2019 conference will turn to the rich historical experience of our country and will consider the experience of the Main Directorate of the Northern Sea Route (Glavsevmorput), the various Arctic committees, the state Committee and other organizations involved in Arctic management.

The conference will be held in St. Petersburg at 29-30 April 2019 on board of the Branch of the World Ocean Museum in St. Petersburg – "Icebreaker Krassin". “Polar Readings – 2019” will be held on the eve of the Icebreaker Festival on the River Neva.

Historians, archives staff, museums, libraries, undergraduate and graduate students of various educational institutions, restorers, archaeologists and collectors are all invited to participate in the conference.

The conference will among others focus on the following themes:

- Activities of the various federal (administrative and scientific) institutions, committees, and commissions on the Arctic and the North (Siberian Department, Jakutskaya prikaznaya izba, the Admiralty Board, the Main Hydrographic Office, the Russian Geographical Society, the Russian Academy of Sciences and the Russian Academy of Sciences’ Polar Commission, the Northern Scientific-Commercial Expedition, etc) from the 17th century to the middle of the 20th century;

- History and experience of the Main Directorate of the Northern Sea Route: its territorial management and various subdivisions (1932-1964);

- Experience of international organisations in the management of scientific research and development of the Arctic;

- Activities of the Commissions on Indigenous Peoples of the North;

- Activities of the Russian Association of Indigenous Peoples of the North (RAIPON);

- Historical experience of interaction between state and public organisations in Arctic governance;

- Prospects for cooperation between state and public organisations in the management of the Arctic on the basis of historical experience.

All the presentations will be published in the “Polar Readings” Conference yearly publication.
